

Forty-sixth Annual
LONERGAN WORKSHOP
Fred Lawrence, Director
lawrence@bc.edu
June 16-21, 2019
BOSTON COLLEGE

BETWEEN PROGRESS AND DECLINE

Schedule of Probabilities

SUNDAY, JUNE 16

Sunday Evening, Stokes 195S

7:00pm Reception

7:30

Paul St Amour, St Joseph's University "A Heuristic for the Critical Analysis of Globalization"

MONDAY, JUNE 17

Monday Morning, Fulton 230 (location, Monday morning only)

9:00-10:30am

Maurice B. Schepers, OP, Eastern Africa Dominican Friars "The Two Phases of Lonergan's Reaching Up to the Mind of Aquinas"

Introduction of Afternoon Workshops

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11 am-12:30 pm Fulton 230

Donna Perry, UMass/Worcester, Partners Healthcare "Trees, Time and History: Finding Grace in Humus"

Joseph Martos, Aquinas Institute of Theology "The Importance of Self-Appropriation"

Monday Afternoon

2-3:30 pm Afternoon Workshops (Campion Classrooms)

(See back page for list of workshops and classroom numbers)*

(Monday afternoon schedule continued, next page)

Monday Afternoon

4-5:00 pm Stokes S195 (PLEASE NOTE: location shift)

Joseph Merkt, Ret. Archdiocese of Louisville, "The Transcendental Spiral of Ministerial Praxis"

Monday Evening, Stokes S195

7:30 pm

Richard Gaillardetz, Boston College "On How Not to Abolish the Priesthood and Still Reform the Church"

Joseph Mudd, Gonzaga University "In Persona Christi and Christo-integration: On Getting Beyond a Bureaucratic Church"

TUESDAY, JUNE 18

9-10:30am, Stokes S195

Richard Grallo, Metropolitan College "Question & Insight in Everyday Life: Remarks on Learning as Mindful Practice"

Bill Mathews, SJ, Milltown Institute, Ireland "The Subjects and Worlds of Human Meaning- Makers"

10:30 -11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:30 Stokes S195

Philipp Fluri, Executive-in-residence, Geneva Centre for Security Policy "Why International Peace Missions Are Not More Successful"

Paul LaChance, Counseling Practice "Working with the Symbolic Function of Meaning in Counseling"

2-3:30 pm Afternoon Workshops (Campion Classrooms)*

4-5:30 pm Stokes S195

Jeremy D. Wilkins, Boston College "Theology in Its New Social Context"

Tuesday Evening, Stokes S195

7:30pm

Patout Burns, Emeritus, Vanderbilt University "'No Salvation outside the Church': Augustine's Texts and Contexts"

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19

9-10:30am, Stokes S195

Michael George, St Thomas University, New Brunswick, CA "Value as Social Project: Lonergan's Ethics and Expanding the Project of Bioethics"

Sue Gray, St Paul University, Ottawa, Canada "Seeking and Accepting Divine Grace: Insight into God's Revelation in the Aesthetic"

10:30 -11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:30 Stokes S195

William George, Dominican University “Hiroshima as Hell - and a New Pentecost?”

Mark T. Miller, Univ. of San Francisco “Was Sartre Religiously Converted?”

2-3:30 pm Afternoon Workshops (Campion Classrooms)*

Wednesday afternoon

4-5:30 pm Stokes S195

Michael Vertin, Emeritus, St Michael’s College, Canada “Lonergan’s Three Basic Questions: Some Added Nuances”

Wednesday Evening, Stokes S195

7:30-8:30pm

Patrick H. Byrne, Boston College “Method in Environmental Ethics”

THURSDAY, JUNE 20

9-10:30 am, Stokes S195

Jeremy Blackwood, Sacred Heart Seminary & School of Theology “The Law of the Cross and Lynching”

Kathleen Williams, Yarra Theological Union, Australia “Out of Darkness Color Breaks: Grace in Our Time”

10:30 -11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:30 Stokes S195

Louis Roy, OP, Dominican University, Canada “Religious Experience in Christian History”

Jonathan Bernier, Director, Lonergan Research Inst., Toronto “Healing and Creating in the History of Ancient Israel”

2-3:30 pm Afternoon Workshops (Cushing Hall classrooms)

4-5:30 pm Stokes S195

Paul O’Hara, Sophia University Institute, Italy “The Law of the Cross and the Dark Night of Culture—a Christian Approach to Living through Dark Times”

6:00 pm Annual Workshop Eucharist at St Mary’s Chapel

6:45 pm Stokes S195, Chowder Supper

Thursday Evening, Stokes S195

7:30pm

John & Susan Michalczyk, Boston College, “Writing on the Wall: Remembering the Berlin Wall,” a film documentary on the fall of the Berlin Wall

(Friday morning, next page)

FRIDAY, JUNE 21 (cont.)

Friday Morning, Stokes S195

9-10:30 am

Andrés Pérez Carrasco, UMass/Boston “Merleau-Ponty, Aristotle, and Lonergan on Knowing by Identity”

Andrew Barrette, Lonergan Fellow, Boston College “Responding to Crises: The Shared Horizons of Early Lonergan and Late Husserl”

Coffee Break, 10:30-11:00

11:00-12:00 Stokes S195

Matthew Petillo, Boston College “How Do We Understand ‘Resurrection of the Body’?”

Fred Lawrence, Boston College, “Three Contemporary Versions of the Longer Cycle of Decline”

Afternoon Workshops 2-3:30 pm Mon-Thurs, Cushing classrooms

- Daniel Ancona: On Insight, (Campion 200)
- Paul LaChance and Jeremy Wilkins: Method in Theology (Campion 235)
- Patrick Daly, M.D., Lonergan and Health (Campion 236)

Cafeterias on campus:

- THE LOFT, Corcoran Commons 2nd floor (lower campus), Sun, 10am-7pm; Mon-Th: 8:00 am-2:00 pm
- EAGLE’S NEST, McElroy Commons (middle campus), Mon-Th, 11:30am-7:30pm; Fri-Sat, 8am-7pm
- Flynn Sports Complex is closed this summer.

Lonergan Emporium:

- *Many papers from the Workshop may be found at the Lonergan Emporium. The Emporium will be held in the Lonergan Center, located on the top floor of Bapst Library. Monday – Friday of the Workshop, 12:00-2:00p.m. Please note that the Lonergan Center will be closed all other times during the Workshop.
- Computer Help Center, O’Neill Library, 1st floor

Parking: Parking Regulations

- On Sunday, please park in the Comm. Ave. garage on non-reserved levels only. On Sunday or Monday, please get a parking hangtag from Kerry for the week. You must provide your license plate and car info to obtain a hangtag. With hangtag, please move to open air parking lots Monday night and throughout the rest of the week.
- Without a hangtag, there is a $25 (max) daily rate to park in the parking garages.

BC’s wireless system

- To gain access, go to helix.bc.edu , click on “guest registration page” and follow the prompts. You must log in as a guest user each day.